

NEW MEXICO ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® — 2024
PROPERTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT
(ADVERSE MATERIAL FACTS)

ATTENTION SELLER AND BUYER!

Per the NMAR Purchase Agreements, Seller is required to disclose all Adverse Material Facts relating to the Property about which Seller has actual knowledge, including defects which the Buyer could determine through their own due diligence. Failure to comply with this requirement could expose Seller to claims of breach of contract, misrepresentation and/or fraud.

⚠ IMPORTANT DEFINITIONS ⚠

ACTUAL KNOWLEDGE: “ACTUAL KNOWLEDGE” means the Seller has direct and clear knowledge of things, without investigation, analysis, or review. Seller is under no obligation to conduct inspections to determine what Adverse Material Facts may exist on and/or around the Property, which is why it is important for Buyer to exercise their rights under the Purchase Agreement to fully inspect all aspects of the Property. This Disclosure Statement is strictly based on Seller’s ACTUAL KNOWLEDGE of ADVERSE MATERIAL FACTS relating to the Property as of the date Seller completes this Disclosure Statement.

ADVERSE MATERIAL FACTS: “ADVERSE MATERIAL FACTS” are facts that would affect the desirability or value of the property to a reasonable person.

DISCLOSURE NOT REQUIRED: Per New Mexico law, Seller is NOT required to disclose the following suspicions or facts, and no cause of action shall arise against a seller or any brokers involved in the transaction for failure to disclose the following suspicions or facts. Further, the failure to make a disclosure of any of the following shall not be deemed to be grounds for termination or rescission of any sale or exchange:

- The Property was the site of a natural death;
- The Property was the site of a homicide, suicide, assault, sexual assault or any other crime punishable as a felony; or
- The Property was owned or occupied by a person who was exposed to, infected with or suspected to be infected with the human immunodeficiency virus or diagnosed to be suffering from acquired immune deficiency syndrome or any other disease that has been determined by medical evidence as highly unlikely to be transmittable to others through the occupancy of improvements to real property or that is not known to be transmitted through the occupancy of improvements located on that real property.

NEWLY DISCOVERED ADVERSE MATERIAL FACTS: Adverse Material Facts which Seller discovers AFTER Seller has delivered their initial Adverse Material Facts Disclosure to Buyer. Newly Discovered Adverse Material Facts do not include Adverse Material Facts that Buyer becomes aware of through their own due diligence.

REMEDIED ADVERSE MATERIAL FACTS: An Adverse Material Fact that previously existed, but that Seller has replaced, repaired or otherwise remedied in such a way and to such an extent that Seller is confident that the Adverse Material Fact no longer exists. In order to feel confident that an Adverse Material Fact is a Remediated Adverse Material Fact, Seller must have had sufficient time and opportunity to observe the repair or replacement in order to confirm the repair or replacement remedied the Adverse Material Fact.

PROPERTY: ALL features, fixtures, elements and/or improvements located on the Property (e.g. homes, detached garages, carports, barns, studios, workshops, etc.), even if a specific element and/or improvement is not listed.

(ADVERSE MATERIAL FACTS)

⚠ IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS ⚠

DISCLOSURE OF REMEDIATED ADVERSE MATERIAL FACTS. Seller is not required to disclose Remediated Adverse Material Facts; HOWEVER, SEE BELOW.

SELLER BEWARE: If you elect not to disclose a Remediated Adverse Material Fact because you believe the issue has been fully remediated and it is later revealed that the repair, replacement or remedy did not in fact fully and completely remediate the issue, and as a result, the Buyer suffers damages, then you may be liable to the Buyer for those damages. For this reason, please consider the following:

1. Disclosing the Remediated Adverse Material Fact;
2. Disclosing how the Remediated Adverse Material Fact was remediated (for example, was it repaired or replaced); and
3. Providing any invoices paid to third-party vendors for the remediation of the Remediated Adverse Material Fact.

BUYER: You are encouraged to confirm with your own inspectors and/or appropriate professionals that any remediation of a Remediated Adverse Material Fact did in fact fully and completely remediate the Remediated Adverse Material Fact.

DISCLOSURE IS REQUIRED EVEN IF SELLER DID NOT OCCUPY PROPERTY. Seller is required to disclose all ADVERSE MATERIAL FACTS about which they have ACTUAL KNOWLEDGE, even if they have never occupied the Property.

CHECK THE BOX AT THE END OF EACH SECTION TO INDICATE NO KNOWLEDGE OF ADVERSE MATERIAL FACTS. If Seller has no ACTUAL KNOWLEDGE of ADVERSE MATERIAL FACTS relating to the feature, fixture, and/or element, check the box at the end of each section. NOTE: EVERY SECTION SHOULD EITHER DISCLOSE AN ADVERSE MATERIAL FACT RELATING TO THAT SECTION OR INDICATE THAT SELLER HAS NO KNOWLEDGE OF ADVERSE MATERIAL FACTS RELATED TO THAT ELEMENT OF THE PROPERTY.

NEWLY DISCOVERED ADVERSE MATERIAL FACTS. Seller MUST update this Disclosure Statement promptly after discovery of any Newly Discovered Adverse Material Facts (See NMAR Form 1110A – Addendum to Adverse Material Facts Disclosure Statement). Buyer’s right to object to the Newly Discovered Adverse Material Facts is set forth in the Purchase Agreement.

EXAMPLES PROVIDED ARE NOT ALL INCLUSIVE. Each element of the Property listed include several specific examples of features or fixtures associated with that element of the Property. Neither the list of elements, nor the list of examples, includes all possible elements of the Property or features associated with those elements. Seller’s disclosures should NOT be limited to the examples provided.

ATTACH AN EXHIBIT IF MORE SPACE IS NEEDED. If more space is required to disclose ADVERSE MATERIAL FACTS for any given section or for an issue for which there is no section, attach an exhibit (NMAR Form 2200) indicating the section number, if applicable, and the Adverse Material Facts being disclosed.

INFORMATION SHEETS AVAILABLE. Buyers and Sellers are encouraged to request copies of the information sheets referenced in this Adverse Material Facts Disclosure Statement. For a complete list of information sheets available through NMAR, ask your Broker.
